ROME, May 14.-Windows in the Italian Chamber of Deputies were started to march to the Royal Palace Several newspapers take the stand to demand that the King immediately declare for war. The parade halted in Front of the Chamber of Deputies, where the crowd howled its displeasure at the peace advocates.

The agitation has assumed aimost a revolutionary character. The entire city has been occupied by the military.

The belief is growing rapidly that there inevitably will be formed another Salandra Cabinet, or at least a cabinet, which will follow the same foreign policy as the Salandra Ministry.

Telephone inquiries from friends and relatives of passengers have been pouring in all day at the offices of the Cunard Line and at newspaper offices. There have been rumors that the ship has been torpedoed and sunk as the Lusitania was, but not one word about her has been received. A statement was issued by the Cunard office, as follows:

"We do not expect to hear from the Transvivanta until her arrival in either Glasgew or Liverpool. Under her schedule when she left New York she was to go to Liverpool, but if Capt. John Black has received at sea orders from the British Admiralty to go first to Glasgow, via the west coast of Ireland, the company will have no word of her until she makes

"No Warning That an Unlawful or Inhumane Act Will Be Committed Can Be Accepted as an Excuse or Palliation for That Act or an Abatement of Responsibility."

BERLIN, May 14. Ambassador Gerard to-day delivered the United States note to the German Foreign Office. It is now under consideration by the Government.

WASHINGTON, May 14 .- The note from President Wilson to Germany, signed, in accordance with diplomatic custom, by Secretary of State Bryan and addressed to Ambassador Gerard, has been cabled to Berlin and is to-day in the hands of the German Foreign Office. The President and the Cabinet expect prompt action. Follows the text in full: Department of State, Washington, May 13, 1915,
